DOCTORATE

INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT AND STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT

MINOR FIELDS: ORGANIZATIONAL STUDIES

Degree conferred May 1999

Dissertation Committee: Dr. Craig Lundberg (Ph.D. – Cornell University), Committee Chair, Dr. Jan H. Katz (Ph.D. – MIT), Dr. J. Bruce Tracey (Ph.D. – SUNY Albany), Dr. Alan K. McAdams (Ph.D. – Stanford)

Dissertation:

Multinational corporate strategic posture and work role transitions: An empirical test of a cross-level model of expatriate adjustment. This dissertation tested hypothesized cross-level relationships among variables at macro (e.g., organizational strategy) and micro (e.g., expatriate adjustment behaviors) levels of analysis. Using survey data from 11 multinational hotel companies, 24 corporate headquarter executives, 194 expatriate general managers, and 505 subordinates, statistical support was found for the proposed cross-level model.

RESEARCH

Research Awards

- North American Case Research Association Fellow Award, 2016. The award recognizes outstanding contributions to the field of case research and teaching and service to NACRA.
- Western Academy of Management's Joan Dahl President's Award, 2015. According to WAM the award: "recognizes members who have contributed to the ongoing success of the Western Academy of Management, supported the professional growth and development of its members, and demonstrated excellence in both teaching and research." Recipients of the award must receive the unanimous support of the academy's executive committee, the result of which is that a recipient is not named each year.
- Western Academy of Management Ascendant Scholar Award, 2006. According to WAM, "to be 'ascendant,' the person should have a record that includes: great research, which is usually determined by the quality and number of articles published; great teaching, which is usually determined by teaching nominations or awards or other types of teaching contributions; engaging professional service, whether with the Academy or with business; and a trajectory or potential that looks very promising for the future."

Research Grants

- W&L Lenfest Summer Research Grant, 2010.
